A full-page background image showing two hikers in winter gear standing on a snow-covered mountain ridge. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a dramatic sunset or sunrise scene with long shadows and a golden glow. The sky is filled with dark, textured clouds. In the foreground, the hikers are silhouetted against the bright light. One hiker is wearing a red helmet and the other a black one. They are both using trekking poles. The terrain is rugged and covered in snow and ice.
